Introduction

- 1 The WRAS Approval Schemes (“the Schemes”) and the WRAS Products and Materials Directory are owned and operated by the Water Regulations Approval Scheme Limited (“WRAS”).
- 2 To be eligible for WRAS approval products or materials must be capable of being lawfully installed or used in the UK.
- 3 The WRAS Approvals Scheme Requirements & Code of Practice (WRAS.Cust-402) sets out what an Approval is.
- 4 WRAS will apply the criteria for Laboratory Recognition consistently as defined in WRAS.Cust-405 and will provide suitably competent personnel, including trained auditors and technical experts as defined in WRAS.Cust-406 for assessment against the recognition requirements.
- 5 This agreement sets out the obligations and responsibilities of WRAS and the Test Laboratory in relation to the Recognition of the Test Laboratory.
- 6 The definitions in document WRAS.Gen-601: WRAS Approvals Terms & Definitions shall apply throughout.

Eligibility and Scheme Compliance

- 7 The Test Laboratory hereby acknowledges that it has received, read, and understands all of the WRAS Product and Materials Approvals Scheme Requirements Documents as defined in WRAS.Gen-601.
- 8 The Test Laboratory:
 - a. represents and warrants that it currently satisfies all of the applicable requirements set out in the Requirements Documents
 - b. shall at all times, where activities relate to WRAS Approvals, perform its responsibilities under and comply with the Requirements Documents
 - c. represents and warrants all test report and supplementary information it provides to WRAS regarding this agreement, submitted as part of an application to the Products and Materials Approval Schemes, is accurate and complete in all respects unless previously agreed in writing with WRAS, and
 - d. shall notify WRAS as soon as it becomes aware of any failure to comply with the Requirements Documents that may have an impact on the validity of any test results reported to WRAS, including for example, but not limited to, the identification of significant equipment failure or incorrect calibration.
- 9 Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in performing testing to support WRAS Approvals, the Test Laboratory agrees to use only Approved Test Methods and shall perform all testing in a professionally competent manner and in accordance with the Requirements Documents and WRAS Guidance.
- 10 WRAS may update, amend and/or establish new or additional WRAS Guidance and amend the Requirements at any time at its sole discretion. WRAS will notify the Test Laboratories of its requirements for Recognition and of any changes to those requirements. It shall take account of views expressed by interested parties before deciding on the precise form and effective date of the changes. When WRAS notifies the Laboratories of any changes to those requirements it will specify the date by which they must be implemented, giving the Test Laboratory reasonable time to implement such changes.

- 11 If the Test Laboratory is an Independent Testing Facility, the Test Laboratory shall not enter into any agreement with customers for testing that is intended to be used to support an application for WRAS Approval, where the terms or conditions of their agreement regarding WRAS Approval are inconsistent with this Agreement or the Requirements Documents.

Requirements for First Party Laboratories

- 12 If the Test Laboratory is a First-Party Test Laboratory, it shall not make any claim or assertion of testing, or compliance with the WRAS Approvals Scheme in connection with the sale, license, distribution or other delivery of any product or service to a third party, except by reference to a final Approval granted by WRAS.
- 13 First-Party Test Laboratories will only perform testing for the purpose of WRAS Approvals on products that are wholly owned/ produced by the organisation that either owns/ controls the Test Laboratory or is covered by a specific third party agreement.
- 14 If a Product tested by a First Party Test Laboratory is found by WRAS not to fulfil the requirements for WRAS Approval, then the Test Laboratory must instigate an investigation and report the reason(s) for the failure to WRAS. WRAS will review the investigation and assess whether the root cause and any corrective actions are satisfactory to WRAS and whether there may be any impact on other Approvals. WRAS may seek further information or instigate an on-site Laboratory inspection and make an assessment of the root-cause and potential corrective actions.
- 15 If WRAS accept that the root cause is the result of a failing within the design process or the production of the product, then the First Party Test Laboratory shall follow appropriate procedures to ensure the root cause is rectified.
- 16 If WRAS accepts that the root cause is the result of the First Party Test Laboratory's testing process then:
 - a. the First Party Laboratory may only re-submit test reports if it has identified the cause of the failure and rectified the failing to the satisfaction of WRAS,
 - b. WRAS reserves the right, subject to the disputes and complaints processes set out at clause 36, to require the manufacturer to use only Independent Test Laboratory for all future testing of other products, for the purposes of seeking WRAS Approval, until WRAS or its authorised representative has carried out an audit of the First-Party Laboratory and WRAS is satisfied with the audit results.

Investigations into Laboratories failing to meet Recognition requirements

- 17 Where a concern regarding the ability of the Test Laboratory to meet the requirements set out in the Requirements Documents or the Test Laboratory's obligations under this Agreement is identified or raised with WRAS, WRAS will record the concern and may carry out any investigation it considers appropriate. The Test Laboratory will fully cooperate with any investigation that WRAS carries out. WRAS will notify the Test Laboratory and ask it to respond to the concerns raised.

- 18 WRAS will review the Test Laboratory's response to WRAS's notice under clause 17 and assess whether the concerns are valid and whether the response identifies the root cause and whether any corrective actions taken by the Test Laboratory are satisfactory to WRAS. WRAS may seek further information or instigate an on-site inspection of the Test Laboratory.
- 19 WRAS will inform the Test Laboratory of the outcome of WRAS's investigation and the conclusions that WRAS has drawn from it. If WRAS determines that actions are required to be taken by the Laboratory to maintain Recognition or otherwise to ensure compliance with the terms of this Agreement, WRAS will give the laboratory written notice of the actions required, the timescale(s) for compliance with those requirements and the consequences of the failure to address the requirements within the timescales.
- 20 If, in WRAS' view, the Laboratory fails to provide satisfactory evidence of compliance with the requirements, notified pursuant to clause 19, to maintain Recognition or comply with any other terms of this Agreement, WRAS may:
 - a. place the Laboratory in remediation (as described at clause 22a below); and / or
 - b. suspend, or partially suspend the Recognition of the Laboratory (as described at clause 22b below); and / or
 - c. reduce the scope of Recognition or withdraw Recognition; and / or
 - d. impose such other sanctions as, in the reasonable opinion of WRAS, are appropriate (which may include, without limitation, withdrawal of Recognition (as described at clause 22c below)).

WRAS will give the Laboratory notice within 5 working days of imposing any such sanctions. Withdrawal of Recognition may be imposed where the Laboratory fails to carry out the actions of which WRAS has given notice to the Test Laboratory the terms of clause 19 within the timescales specified and where withdrawal of Recognition has been specified as a consequence.

Sanctions

- 21 WRAS may impose sanctions on Recognised Laboratories if WRAS considers that the laboratory has not, or cannot continue to, comply with the requirements set out in the Requirements Documents or the Test Laboratory's obligations under this Agreement. In deciding the severity of any non-conformance, whether to apply sanctions and which sanctions to apply, WRAS will consider the following factors:
 - a. Risk to public health
 - b. Proportionality and the potential impact of any failure by the Laboratory to meet requirements
 - c. Sufficiency of evidence of failure to meet requirements
 - d. Any other factors as WRAS considers are reasonably necessary to ensure that the process is fair and just to all concerned

- 22 These sanctions include:
- a. "Remediation"- WRAS may, upon written notice, place the Test Laboratory it into remediation. If WRAS does so then the Test Laboratory shall carry out any corrective action set out in that notice within the timescales specified in that notice. Unless otherwise instructed by WRAS, the Test Laboratory may continue to perform Testing during remediation as long as it is in compliance with all requirements notified to the Test Laboratory by WRAS associated with such remediation. WRAS reserves the right to suspend or withdraw Recognition where the Test Laboratory fails to meet those requirements or to complete any of the corrective actions within the specified timescales.
 - b. "Suspension" – WRAS may, upon written notice to the Test Laboratory, place it into suspension. The suspension shall continue until WRAS gives the Test Laboratory written notice that WRAS is satisfied that the Test Laboratory has remedied the issue that prompted the suspension and is capable of complying with the requirements set out in the Requirements Documents or the Test Laboratory's obligations under this Agreement. During the period of suspension, test reports from the Test Laboratory will not be accepted as part of WRAS Approvals applications and this status will be indicated on the Website.
 - c. "Withdrawal" – WRAS may, upon written notice to the Test Laboratory, withdraw its Recognition. The withdrawal shall take effect from the date of the notice.
- 23 Sanctions can be 'full', covering entire full scope of accredited activities, or 'partial' covering part of the scope (such as a specific location or specified test). WRAS may publish details of organisation to which sanctions apply on the Website, once the process has been completed, including any appeals.
- 24 The Test Laboratory acknowledges that maintaining the integrity of the Products and Materials Approval Scheme is of the utmost importance to WRAS. Accordingly, the Test Laboratory agrees that following any suspension or withdrawal, and thereafter until such time as the Test Laboratory's Recognition has been fully reinstated by WRAS in writing, the Test Laboratory shall neither accept nor test any Product for Testing explicitly for WRAS approval, nor state or imply that the Test Laboratory is authorised to perform such testing for the purpose of application to the WRAS Approval Scheme.
- 25 When Recognition is suspended or withdrawn, test reports from the Test Laboratory will no longer be accepted as evidence to support WRAS Approval applications. The Test Laboratory must inform all:
- a. their relevant existing customers who would be affected by the sanction; and
 - b. prospective customers requiring testing to support applications for WRAS Approvals,
- of this status.
- 26 Existing issued test reports, and any WRAS Approvals based upon them, will remain unaffected as they were issued before the sanction was applied, unless it transpires that they were issued incorrectly by the Test Laboratory. In this case, WRAS will contact the affected clients.
- 27 WRAS has confidentiality agreements in place with the Recognised Laboratories. This means that WRAS cannot declare publicly why a sanction has been imposed.

Notification of Sanctions:

- 28 All sanctions made against Recognised Test Laboratories will be issued in writing, detailing the situation and reasons for the restrictions being applied to the Recognition status.
- 29 Any notification of Sanctions will be authorised by a WRAS Director. Written notice shall identify the reason(s) and scope of any suspension or withdrawal of recognition and provide the date it will take effect.
- 30 Appeals against sanction decisions may be made in writing to the Managing Director of WRAS. These must clearly set out the reasons the Test Laboratory feels that remediation and Recognition requirements have been met. The Test Laboratory will be offered an opportunity to discuss their appeal before a decision is made. After which the Test Laboratory will be notified of the decision in writing.
- 31 The Test Laboratory can make a final appeal in writing to the Chair of WRAS detailing its reasons for believing that the initial appeal decision was incorrect. The Chair may appoint a panel with relevant experience, having made reasonable enquiries to ensure no member of such panel has a conflict of interest, to review the appeal and make a recommendation. The decision of the Chair in determining such appeal shall, be final and binding on the parties.

Remediation & Reinstatement:

- 32 The Test Laboratory may apply for reinstatement as a Recognised Test Laboratory after an applicable revocation period specified by WRAS which will be identified in the notification.
- 33 Re-instatement will require the Test Laboratory to re-apply under the same terms as a new applicant. Additional surveillance measures may be applied.

Communication

- 34 Designated Contact: In order to facilitate communications between the parties, each party shall define a designated primary contact person (a "Primary Contact") and an alternate contact ("Alternate Contact") for the purposes of this Agreement. The contact details for each party's initial Primary and Alternate Contact, shall be provided in Appendix B. Either party may change these contact points by notice in accordance with clause 73 below.
- 35 Notices: All notices under this Agreement shall be given in writing in the English language and shall be deemed to have been duly given if sent by hand, by courier, or by electronic facsimile to the intended receiving party's Primary Contact at the address specified below. Notices shall be deemed to have been received by the addressee one business day after dispatch by overnight courier as above, or the next business day if delivered by hand or sent by facsimile to the addressee's correct address.
- 36 Complaints and Disputes: If the Test Laboratory disputes a decision that WRAS has made relating to the Recognition of the Test Laboratory then the Test Laboratory shall refer the dispute to the complaints process in accordance with this clause 36. The Test Laboratory shall not seek any other remedy (including commencing any court proceedings) until the Applicant / Approval holder has exhausted the complaints process. To refer a dispute to the complaints process the Test Laboratory shall notify the WRAS Approvals Manager in writing setting out why the Test Laboratory disputes the relevant decision. Where the Test

Laboratory refers a dispute to the complains process WRAS and the Test Laboratory shall comply with the following process:

Stage 1: The WRAS Approvals & Enquiries Manager will review the complaint and take such action as he or she considers appropriate to resolve the complaint.

Stage 2: Where the Test Laboratory is not satisfied with the outcome of Stage 1, the Test Laboratory shall write to the Managing Director of WRAS setting out details of the complaint and why the Test Laboratory is not satisfied with the outcome of Stage 1. The Managing Director shall review the complaint and take such action as he or she considers appropriate to resolve it.

Stage 3: If a Test Laboratory is dissatisfied with the way a complaint has been dealt with by the Managing Director, the Test Laboratory shall request a review by the WRAS Chairman. The Chairman may appoint a panel with relevant experience to investigate the complaint and make a recommendation. The WRAS Chairman shall take such action as he or she considers appropriate to resolve the complaint.

Each stage of the complaints process shall be complete when the WRAS decision-maker responsible for that stage provides a written notice to the Test Laboratory setting out the action he or she considers appropriate to resolve the complaint and confirming that stage of the complaints process has been completed.

- 37 Public Statements: Once a recognition letter has been issued and for the period of recognition, the following phrase may be used publicly:

"[Insert name of the test laboratory] is recognised by WRAS Approvals. This allows test reports within its scope of recognition to be submitted to WRAS in support of a WRAS approval application."

- 38 In addition, the following optional phase may be added to describe the Test Laboratory's scope of testing agreed with WRAS: " The scope of recognition includes the following [list scope]"
- 39 Unless otherwise authorised by the other party in writing, neither party may make any other public statements regarding this Agreement or its terms (without prejudice to clause 23).

- 41 Subject to clauses 42 to 44, both WRAS and the Test Laboratory undertake not to divulge to any third party, any information which was designated as confidential by the other party at the time it was made available ("Confidential Information"), without prior written consent of that other party.
- 42 WRAS may make information relating to granted and expired Approvals available to the Water Companies. This information will be limited to information that is, or was, available in the public domain, the dates an approval changed status, photographs and any other further information the Applicant or Approval Holder have given permission to share.
